**Update** On November 4, 2009, Governor Steve Beshear appointed Larry to serve as a Special Justice on the Kentucky Supreme Court. Larry's temporary appointment to the Kentucky Supreme Court, however, will not impact his ability to accept new clients or cases or represent his current clients.

Larry spent nearly the first seven years of his career representing some of the largest companies in the world. Since joining Bahe Cook Cantley & Jones, Larry has used his skill, experience and training to fight for real people.

Today, Larry's litigation practice focuses primarily on personal injury cases. He handles all types of personal injury cases including medical malpractice, defective products and drugs, wrongful death, auto accidents, tractor trailer accidents, motorcycle accidents, pharmaceutical injuries, nursing home negligence and other injury claims. He also handles many types of employment discrimination and sexual harassment cases.

Larry has been actively involved in several pharmaceutical multi-district litigation (MDL) cases, including most recently In re: Digitek Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 1968 and In Re: Total Body Formula Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 1946. Larry currently serves on the Plaintiff's Steering Committee in the Total Body Formula MDL.

Larry has attained the the prestigious Martindale-Hubbell AV® Peer Review Rating — An AV® certification mark is a significant rating accomplishment - a testament to the fact that a lawyer's peers rank him or her at the highest level of professional excellence. It is the highest rating a lawyer can receive.

Before law school, Larry served as a political aide to Kentucky Governor Paul E. Patton. Larry earned his law degree from the University of Kentucky College of Law, graduating near the top of his class with cum laude honors. While in law school, Larry earned a position as an Associate Editor on the prestigious Kentucky Law Journal, was selected for the law school's Moot Court Board and was one of only two chosen to represent the law school on its National Evidence Moot Court Team. Larry's peers also elected him to serve as their class representative on the Student Bar Association. Larry received a CALI Award of Excellence for the Highest Grade in Insurance Law, which serves him well in his daily battles to get insurance companies to honor their commitments to compensate injured victims for their losses.

Larry's experience is broad. During his career, he has worked on matters involving wrongful death, class actions, nursing home negligence, defective products, medical malpractice, auto accidents, employment disputes (breach of contract, wrongful discharge, and non-compete agreements), employment discrimination, insurance practices and coverage (bad faith and contract disputes), consumer protection, business contract disputes, lender liability, letters of credit, financial advisor
